Mr. Allen Francis,
Renfrew, Ont., Canada

Good Morning, Allen Francis:

The writer made inquiry of you on February 23rd about information regarding the Francis family and I am writing again to indicate my interest in receiving such information as you can give me.

A. V. Francis, who told me about the visit he and father paid to your fine dairy farm some twelve or fifteen years ago, has recently told me about some information he remembers hearing from the lips of a Miss Elizabeth Francis, of Pawtucket, R. I., daughter of Elisha Francis, to the effect that the Francis family can be traced back through Ireland, to Wales and thence to Normandy to include the St. Francis of Assisa.

He also tells me that the Wood family can trace through Rachel Stuart, wife of James Francis, to the Royal Stuarts of Scotland, and Mary Queen of the Scots.

With all the zeal of the religious blood (!) in my veins, I am now interested in tracing down the amount of Royal (!) blood, and I hope you will be interested enough to help me.

Cordially
