

IN MEMORY OF

VIOLA ANN

MOXAM

Life Story for Viola Moxam

In loving memory of Viola Ann Moxam, 83 years, of Lively, who passed away Sunday morning, June 7th, 2009, at SRH - St. Joseph Health Centre. She was born in Copper Cliff and lived there most of her life. She married Andrew Moxam in 1943. Viola worked for the Natural Gas Company for 22 years. She loved the outdoors and along with her husband, they built a camp on Lake Panache which was their pride and joy and where they spent 47 wonderful years. Her door was always open to others. She was a well-loved Mumma and well respected friend. She was a chartered member and a tireless worker for the Walden Lioness Club for many years. Her love of Bingo is legendary. She was a beautiful knitter and the family sports her creations. Beloved wife of Andrew James Moxam (predeceased). Loving mother of Donna (Paul Aloisi) of Walden, Doug (Michelle) of Copper Cliff, Debbie (Wayne Powell) of Little Panache, David (Trisha) of Dallas, Texas. Cherished Mumma of Kyle, Trevor, Tara, Tori, Crystal, Cody and Ginger and iso-mumma to River, Leaf, Madison, Logyn and Jeremy. Dear daughter of Ilmi and Herbie Koski (predeceased). Dear sister of Diane Hildebrant (Harvey predeceased) and Velma (predeceased). Sister-in-law of Jan Moxam, Pat Moxam, Adeline Moxam and Ab Neufeld. Sadly missed by many nieces and nephews.
