Born June 26th, 1933 in Waters Township, Ontario. Son of the late Herbert Melvin and Dorothy Louise Moxam (nee Tillwelligar). Ollie as he was known to most was a very energetic man who worked at a very young age at Palm Dairy in Sudbury. When he was 18, he started to work for the Former International Nickel Company (INCO). Oliver worked at Inco until he retired in 1991 due to health reasons. Oliver was also a member of the Waters Township Volunteer Fire Department retiring with 25 years of service. Oliver met the love of his life and was married to Natalie Laframboise on May 23rd, 1952. They built a home in Waters Township where they raised their 5 children; Patricia DiPasquale (husband Larry), Brenda Johnson (husband James), Valerie Salo (husband Kenneth), Wade Moxam (wife Deborah) and Tania Swanson (husband Todd). Oliver has always been proud of his kids and a wonderful "Poppa" Grandpa to his 10 grandchildren; Collin, Erin, Cory, Terri-Lyn, Tyler, Donald, Daniel, Damara, Hailey, Morgan and great grandchildren; Nicolas, Mackenzie and Lilliana. Oliver was a special Poppa to Gaston. Dear brother of Helen Gauthier (husband Beltram) both predeceased, Mildred Melin (husband Raymond) and Richard (Lannie predeceased). Oliver leaves behind many nieces, nephews and friends. The Family would like to thank the nurses Diane and Lori and all the doctors on the 8th floor-cardiac Unit at the Sudbury Regional Hospital who took great care of Oliver.
