

J. CARL WILCOX

In loving memory of J. Carl Wilcox, born May 8, 1921, in Cobden Ontario, Canada. Carl pass away on March 2, 2007.

He served proudly in the Canadian Navy as in officer during World War II. He moved to California in 1959 where he worked as a tool and die maker. He was a Past Master of the San Carlos Free Masons Lodge, also a member of the Scottish Rite Lodge in Burlingame.

He showed his compassion to his wide circle of friends from his many endeavors.

Carl is survived by his two children, daughter Lynda Seaton of Redwood City, CA and son James Carl Wilcox III of Las Vegas, NV. Grandchildren, Bryant and Michael Seaton of Redwood City, CA, James Carl Wilcox IV, wife Cheryl, Heather McDonald and husband James, all of Arcadia, CA.

Memorial Service to be held at Redwood Chapel on 847 Woodside Road, Redwood City, CA on March 31st at 11 a.m.

Internment at Cobden Union Cemetery, Canada. Expressions of Sympathy Donations can be made to the Alzheimer's Foundation or a Foundation or Charity of your choice.

<https://www.eastbaytimes.com/2007/03/29/obituaries-1366/>